PRENATAL CARE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Family Health Plus is a public health insurance program for adults between the ages of 19 and 64 who do not have health insurance, either on their own or through their employers but have incomes too high to qualify for Medicaid.

Family Health Plus is available to single adults, couples without children, and parents with limited income who are residents of New York State and are United States citizens or fall under one of many immigration categories.

Family Health Plus provides comprehensive coverage, including prevention, primary care, hospitalization, prescriptions and other services. There are no premiums to participate in Family Health Plus.

Income level guide

Family Size	Monthly gross income
1 Single/Childless adult	$817
2 Single/ Childless adults	$1,100

New York State has a health insurance plan for all kids, called Child Health Plus. Depending on your family's income, your child may be eligible to join either Child Health Plus A (formerly Children's Medicaid) for free or Child Health Plus B for free or at low-cost regardless of immigration status.

Child Health Plus covers important services such as regular medical check-ups, prescription drugs, hospital care, eye exams, eyeglasses, mental health services, and much more

New York State provides free health insurance for many pregnant women with limited income regardless of their immigration status under Medicaid and the PCAP program. Pregnant women who participate in PCAP can receive a wide range of services designed to ensure a healthy pregnancy including prenatal visits and specialty medical care. Services continue until two months after the pregnancy ends. Services will continue automatically for 12 months for the newborn . Family Planning Benefits are available for 24 months.

Health coverage is provided through the following Managed Care Plans

- Affinity
- Community Choice Health Plan
- Empire Blue Cross and Blue Shield
- Fidelis Care NY
- GHI HMO
- Hudson Health Plan
- Wellcare

Applications must be submitted to health plans by the 20th of each month to have coverage for the 1st of the following month.
