

Table of Contents

I. INTRODUCTION..... I-1

A. Plan Structure.....I-3

B. The Planning Process.....I-3

C. SEQRAI-4

II. PLANNING ISSUESII-1

A. The Land Use Agenda..... II-1

1. County-Wide Land Use II-1

2. Municipal Land Use..... II-6

3. Areas Subject to Change..... II-11

4. Land Use Controls II-17

B. The Historic Resources Agenda..... II-17

C. The Waterfront Agenda II-21

D. Rockland’s Changing Population..... II-24

E. The Transportation Agenda..... II-29

1. Mobility: People and Goods II-29

2. Land Use/Transportation Patterns..... II-35

3. Socio-Economic Factors II-38

4. Environmental and Quality of Life Issues II-38

5. Modal Issues II-40

6. Tappan Zee Bridge Issues II-45

7. Local Perspectives on Transportation II-46

F. The Economic Development Agenda II-49

1. Rockland County in the Region..... II-49

2. Economic Background and Trends..... II-51

3. Economic Development Entities..... II-53

4. The Economic Issues II-54

G. The Housing and Neighborhood Preservation Agenda..... II-57

1. The Housing Stock..... II-58

2. Population and Housing Characteristics II-59

3. Housing Programs..... II-60

4. Critical Housing Issues II-61

5. Neighborhood Preservation II-62

H. Open Space and the Environmental Agendas II-63

1. Parks and Recreation..... II-64

2. Farmland Preservation II-69

Table of Contents

3.	Open Space and Environmental Feature Preservation	II-70
4.	Water Supply and Sanitary Sewage	II-71
5.	Solid Waste	II-74
6.	Utilities.....	II-74
III.	VISIONING	III-1
A.	The Overall County-Wide Vision.....	III-1
B.	Planning Objectives	III-2
1.	Land Use Objectives	III-2
2.	Transportation Objectives	III-3
3.	Economic Development Objectives	III-4
4.	Environment and Open Space Objectives.....	III-5
5.	Housing and Neighborhood Preservation Objectives	III-6
IV.	COMPREHENSIVE PLAN STRUCTURE AND LAND USE PLAN.....	IV-1
A.	The Structure Plan.....	IV-1
1.	Traditional Downtown Centers	IV-1
2.	Suburban Hubs.....	IV-2
3.	Activity Nodes	IV-3
4.	Corridors	IV-4
5.	Natural Areas	IV-5
6.	Residential Areas	IV-5
B.	The Land Use Plan and Map.....	IV-6
1.	Traditional Centers, Suburban Hubs and Activity Nodes	IV-8
2.	Residential Areas	IV-9
3.	Waterfront	IV-9
4.	Corridors	IV-10
C.	Overall Land Use Strategies	IV-15
V.	ACTION PLANS AND POLICIES	V-1
A.	The Transportation Plan.....	V-1
B.	The Economic Development Plan.....	V-13
C.	The Housing and Neighborhood Preservation Plan.....	V-21
D.	The Open Space and Environmental Protection Plan	V-28
E.	The Waterfront Plan	V-45

VI. IMPLEMENTATION VI-1

 A. County Implementation MeasuresVI-1

 B. Municipal Implementation MeasuresVI-9

 C. Other Levels of Government and the Not-for-ProfitsVI-11

VII. CONCLUSION VII-1

List of Tables

Table Number		Page Number
II-1	County-Wide Land Use Patterns.	II-4
II-2	Population Growth, 1950-1996	II-24
II-3	Population Density/Persons per Square Mile, 1950-1996	II-25
II-4	Race Characteristics of the Population	II-26
II-5	Percent Change Hispanic Population, 1990-1996	II-26
II-6	Projected Population for Five Townships and County, 1995-2010	II-28
II-7	Community Patterns of Rockland County Residents, 1980-1990	II-31
II-8	Journey-to-Work Trips to Rockland County, 1990	II-32
II-9	Housing Units by Town	II-59
II-10	Population by Town	II-60
II-11	Parks and Recreation Resources	II-65

List of Exhibits

Exhibit	Page Number
Regional Location	I-2
Existing Land Use	II-5
Physical Features/Areas Subject to Change	II-12
Generalized County-Wide Zoning	II-16
Historic Sites and Districts	II-18
Rockland County Population by Age and Sex: 1990 and 1996	II-27
Major Employers and Shopping Centers	II-50
Recreation and Open Space	II-66
Comprehensive Plan	IV-7
Corridor Land Use	IV-11
Transportation Systems	V-2
Conceptual Rockland Route 200	V-34